

1. A mother walked out her front door on June 24th and said, "April is finally here!" How is this possible?

Answer:

2. What can be seen in the middle of March and April that cannot be seen at the beginning or end of either month?

Answer:

3. I'm a day when truth takes a twist, and laughter is hard to resist. What am I?

Answer:

4. What's the difference between Thanksgiving and a prankster's delight? One's full of thanks, the other's full of fright!

Answer:

5. What's the best day to monkey around with your pals? It starts with "Ape" and ends with laughs!

Answer:

6. If April showers bring may flowers, what do may flowers bring?

Answer:

7. What flowers are kissable?

Answer:

8. A man crosses a desert in 10 days with no water. How?

Answer:

9. What do you get when you cross a dog with a trickster's day?

Answer:

10. I'm filled with air and hide under your seat; sit down, and I'll give you a treat. What am I?

Answer:

11. When a trick is revealed, this person feels naive; on April 1st, they're easy to deceive. Who am I?

Answer:

12. I'm a monster who loves to jest, playing tricks is what I do best. Who am I?

Answer:

13. Babies born on March 31st are easy to prank the next day. Why?

Answer:

14. I'm a tale that sounds grand, but on this day, don't take a stand. What am I?

Answer:

15. I seem real but often deceive; on the first of April, I'm easy to believe. What am I?

Answer:

Riddle Answers

1. April is her daughter and she just came back from college.
2. The letter R. This wordplay ties to April Fools' Day by focusing on the month of April, encouraging clever thinking typical of pranks.
3. April Fools' Day This directly references April Fools' Day, a time when people twist the truth with pranks to spark laughter.
4. April Fools' Day. This contrasts Thanksgiving's gratitude with April Fools' Day's playful scares and tricks.
5. Ape-ril Fools' Day! A pun on "April," this highlights the silly, mischievous fun of the day.
6. Pilgrims. Alternate answer: Prankenstein (instead of Pilgrims). A twist on the classic riddle, "Prankenstein" (a play on Frankenstein) fits the monstrously playful spirit of April Fools'.
7. Tulips (two-lips). This pun aligns with April's springtime setting and the lighthearted trickery of the holiday.
8. He's a camel named Abdul. The unexpected twist (a camel, not a man) mirrors the surprise element of April Fools' pranks.
9. April Drool's Day. A playful pun on "April Fools'," this reflects the holiday's goofy humor.
10. A whoopee cushion. A classic prank tool, it's a staple of April Fools' Day mischief.
11. A fool. "Fool" is central to the holiday's name and theme of being tricked.
12. Prankenstein. This playful monster embodies the spirit of April Fools' pranksters.
13. They were born yesterday. A literal twist ties to April 1st, emphasizing the holiday's timing and trickery.
14. Fake news! Fake news stories are a modern April Fools' tradition, designed to mislead for fun.
15. A hoax. Hoaxes are fake stories or events commonly spread on April Fools' Day to trick people.

Thanks for choosing Riddles.com!